

Lobby Hero

By Kenneth Lonergan

June 19-28 2020

Director: Mike McGee mikemcgee99@yahoo.com

Auditions will consist of cold readings from the script. Please come prepared to list ALL conflicts. All conflicts must be provided prior to the cast list being posted.

ALL roles OPEN. Please note that ages listed are relative and flexible.

Important dates:

~~Auditions: Monday April 13 and Tuesday April 14 7 PM
At the Wake Forest Renaissance Center. Registration begins at 6:30~~
See Auditions Update (Video Submissions)

~~Callbacks (if needed) Wednesday April 15 at 7 PM also at the Wake Forest Renaissance Center~~

Tentative First Cast Meeting, Read Thru and Costume Measurements:
Monday April 27 7 PM (could be another day that week based upon cast conflicts)

Rehearsals: Rehearsals will be 3-4 days per week based upon Cast conflicts starting around May 11

No Conflicts After June 5

Synopsis:

What happens when emotions come in conflict with principles, and how do choices under pressure define who we really are? The lobby of a Manhattan apartment building is much more than a waiting area for four New Yorkers involved in a murder investigation. It's a testing ground for what happens when personal and professional personas find themselves at odds. A young security guard with big ambitions clashes with his stern boss, an intense rookie cop and her unpredictable partner.

About the Roles:

JEFF – White Male, 20s– A uniformed security guard; he is talkative, sarcastic and curious; he is somehow both anxious and relaxed, tranquil and uncomfortable. Needs to have strong comic timing.

WILLIAM – Black Male 25+ – Jeff’s supervisor; he is serious, responsible, intense and ambitious.

DAWN – Female, 20s– Dawn is a rookie cop. She is tough, vulnerable, guarded and smart.

BILL - White Male, 30s-40s– A seasoned policeman. Bill is charming and arrogant; he is aggressive and dramatic with both his warmth and his rage.