

From the Director

Hello Friends,

With everything going on with Covid-19 and not wanting to scramble at the last minute should we have to cancel the in person portion , we've decided to switch to Video submissions instead of in-person auditions!

We ask you to record a contemporary monologue of your choosing. No more than one minute and no Shakespeare please. We are also going to ask you to read the sides provided for the character you are interested in. The sides are meant to be read as a monologue so no need for someone to read with you. Also, please know we are not asking for any professional videoing or editing. Just a video from your phone is fine.

We will accept video submissions until April 14th by 10pm. When you submit your videos, please include a completed audition form and completed conflict calendar. If you have any issues filling these out electronically , please contact me and we will figure something out.

The video, along with any questions you might have, can be emailed to the director, Mike McGee, at mikemcgee99@yahoo.com .
